Our ethos:

SEND Vision: At St Mary & St John we are committed to inclusion; the pupils are at the heart of everything that we do. Our curriculum has been developed to ensure every child can let their light shine. We are proud of our inclusive and nurturing approach. We celebrate strengths and the things that make us unique individuals, whilst identifying and targeting areas to improve. When additional needs are identified we have a clear pathway for individuals to refer to. For those whom require additional targeted provision then they will be added to our SEND register and an individual education plan (IEP) will be implemented. Every teacher is a teacher of special educational needs. Therefore, we endeavour, as individuals and as a team, to meet the needs of each person through reasonable adjustments and targeted approaches. All of which is done in collaboration with pupils, parents, staff and where appropriate external services.

Introduction

This document is intended to give you information regarding the ways we ensure we support all our pupils, including those with SEND, in order that they realise their full potential.

What is the LA local offer?

The Children and Families Bill 2014 requires all schools to publish and keep under review information about services expected to be available for the children and young people with Special Education Needs (SEN) aged 0-25. This is the 'SEN Information Report' and will be available on the school's website.

The Local Offer

The intention of the local offer is to improve choice and transparency for families within every Local Authority (LA). It will be an important resource for parents in understanding the range of services and provision in the local area. Further information about Rutland County Council's Local Offer can be found at:

What is the school SEN Information Report?

This utilises the LA local offer to meet the needs of SEN pupils as determined by the school policy and details the provision that the school is able to provide.

What do we do at St Mary and St John CEVA Primary School to make sure that all children feel welcome, feel included and achieve their potential?

We take steps to ensure SEND pupils are not treated less favourably than other pupils.

The Head Teacher and the SENCO have overall responsibility for SEND and Inclusion.

Inclusion issues are regularly discussed at Senior Leadership meetings.

Provision for children with SEND is constantly under review and amended where and when necessary.

We monitor the quality of our provision, together with the progress and well-being of children with SEND. This includes teaching as well as support through our rigorous monitoring cycle and consists of teaching observations by leaders to support staff.

The SENCO holds termly provision meetings with all who work with the children, to review and set new Individual Learning targets.

We fully involve our Governors when the SEND policy is reviewed and revised and action plans are drawn up.

What kinds of SEN do we provide for?

Children and young people's SEN are generally thought of in the following four broad areas of need and support.

- Communication and Interaction
- Cognition and Learning
- Social, Emotional and Mental Health
- Sensory and/or Physical Needs

Who are the best people to talk to in this school about my child's difficulties with learning/ Special Education Needs or disability (SEND)?

The Special Educational Needs Coordinator – SENCo – Mr Adam Clark

The SENCo manages the day-to-day provision for our children with SEND.

Responsible for:

- Coordinating all the support for children with special educational needs or disabilities (SEND) and developing the school's SEND Policy to make sure all children get a consistent, high quality response to meeting their needs in school.
- Ensuring that you are:
 - o Involved in supporting your child's learning
 - o Kept informed about the support your child is getting

How does the school identify children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities?

On starting school, we will talk with parents and carers about their children in order to plan effectively to meet their needs. As parents are the first educators of their child, their knowledge is essential. On home visits and initial meetings we ask whether parents have any concerns about their children – for example, if they have a disability, special need or medical need. This helps us to plan how we will support their child once they start school. Where a child has attended a previous setting, we use information from that setting to plan the best programme of support to develop a Transition Plan. We will also contact any specialist services that support your child.

The progress of all pupils is assessed and monitored regularly so that when a pupil is not making expected progress, the need for additional support can quickly be identified. School will monitor the progress of all children receiving additional support to ensure that the provision we have put in place is having an impact. This means that we can support any Special Educational Needs that arise.

Any child identified as having a special educational need and/or disability is identified on the SEND register.

We take great care to establish whether progress is affected because a pupil has attendance issues, has English as an additional language (EAL) or a hearing or visual difficulty.

We also work with specialist services who provide expertise in finding out the type and range of the child's needs.

We follow Rutland County Council's guidance for the identification of pupils with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities.

What are the different types of support available for children with SEND in St Mary and St John CEVA Primary School (including those in Looked After Care)?

Class teacher input via excellent targeted classroom teaching also known as Quality First Teaching.

For your child this would mean:

- That the teacher has the highest possible expectations for your child and all pupils in their class.
- That all teaching is based on building on what your child already knows, can do and can understand.
- Different ways of teaching are in place so that your child is fully involved in learning in class. This may involve things like using more practical learning.
- Specific strategies (which may be suggested by the SENCO or outside staff) are in place to support your child to learn.
- Your child's teacher will have carefully checked on your child's progress and will have decided that your child has a gap in their understanding/learning and needs some extra support or intervention to help them make the best possible progress.

All children in school get this as a part of excellent classroom practice, when needed.

Specific group work within a smaller group of children.

This group, often called Intervention groups by schools, may be

- Run in the classroom or outside.
- Run by a teacher or most often a teaching assistant who has had training to run these groups.

Stages of SEN Code of Practice: SENS

School Support means the child has been identified by the class teacher as needing some extra support in school and will receive interventions.

For your child this would mean:

- He/ She will engage in group sessions with specific targets to help him/her to make more progress.
- A Learning Support Assistant/teacher will run these small group sessions using the teacher's plan or planned intervention material.

This type of support is available for any child who has specific gaps in their understanding of a subject/area of learning.

Specialist groups run by outside agencies or to support specialist programmes e.g Speech and Language Therapy OR Occupational Therapy groups

SEN Support Outside Agency

Which means they have been identified by the class teacher/SENCO as needing some extra specialist support in school from a professional outside the school.

This may be from:

- Local Authority central services such as Inclusion Support, the ASD Outreach Team or Sensory Service (for students with a hearing or visual need)
- Outside agencies such as the Speech and Language Therapy (SALT) Service, Occupational Health or Physiotherapy services.

For your child this would mean:

- Your child will have been identified by the class teacher/SENCO (or you will have raised your worries) as needing more specialist input instead of or in addition to quality first teaching and intervention groups.
- You will be asked to come to a meeting to discuss your child's progress and help plan possible ways forward.
- You may be asked to give your permission for the school to refer your child to a specialist professional e.g., Educational Psychologist. This will help the school and you understand your child's particular needs better and be able to support them better in school.

- The specialist professional will work with your child to understand their needs and make recommendations, which may include:
- Making changes to the way your child is supported in class e.g. some individual support or changing some aspects of teaching to support them better
- Support to set better targets which will include their specific expertise
- A group run by school staff under the guidance of the outside professional e.g., a social skills group
- Group or individual work with an outside professional
- The school may suggest that your child needs some agreed individual support in school. They will tell you how the support will be used and what strategies will be put in place.

This type of support is available for children with specific barriers to learning that cannot be overcome through Quality First Teaching and intervention groups.

Specified Individual Support - of more than 20 hours in school for your child.

This is usually provided via an Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP).

This means your child will have been identified by the class teacher/SENCO or Rutland County Council's Inclusion team as needing a particularly high level of individual or small group teaching (more than 20 hours a week), which cannot be provided from the budget available to the school.

Usually, your child will also need specialist support in school from a professional outside the school.

This may be from:

- Local Authority central services such as Inclusion Support, the ASD Outreach Team or Sensory Service (for students with a hearing or visual need)
- Outside agencies such as the Speech and Language Therapy (SALT) service, Occupational Health or Physiotherapy services.

For your child this would mean:

- The school (or you) can request that the Local Authority carry out a statutory assessment of your child's needs. This is a legal process which sets out the amount of support that will be provided for your child.
- After the school has sent in the request to the Local Authority (with various information about your child, including some from you and from your child), they will decide whether they think your child's needs (as described in the paperwork provided), seem complex enough to need a statutory assessment. If this is the case they will ask you and all professionals involved with your child to write a report outlining your child's needs. If they do not think your child needs this, they will ask the school to continue with the support at SEN Support.
- After the reports have all been sent in the Local Authority will decide if your child's

St. Mary & St. John

Church Of England Voluntary Aided Primary School

North Luffenham, Rutland

needs are severe, complex and lifelong and that they need additionally funded support in school to make good progress. If this is the case, they will write an EHC Plan. If this is not the case, they will ask the school to continue with the support at SEN Support and also set up a meeting in school to ensure a plan is in place to ensure your child makes as much progress as possible.

- The EHC Plan will outline the individual/small group support your child will receive from the LA and how the support should be used and what strategies must be put in place. It will also have long and short-term goals for your child.
- An additional adult may be used to support your child with whole class learning, run individual programmes or run small groups including your child.

This type of support is available for children whose learning needs are:

- Severe, complex and lifelong
- Need more than 20 hours of support in school

We recognise that each child is unique and so, each child will receive different support depending on their specific needs.

How can I let the school know I am concerned about my child's progress in school?

- If you have concerns about your child's progress you should speak to your child's class teacher initially.
- If you are not happy that the concerns are being managed and that your child is still not making progress you should speak to Adam Clark –SENCO. You can contact them by email at senco@northluffenham.rutland.sch.uk and an appointment can be made to discuss your child's needs.
- If you are still not happy you can speak to the Head teacher.

How will the school let me know if they have any concerns about my child's learning in school?

- Directly contacting parents to arrange a meeting to discuss concerns
- Annual reports and termly parents' evenings give all parents and carers regular feedback on their child's up to date academic levels, reading, writing and maths targets and any behavioural, emotional or social difficulties
- Pupils views are obtained when appropriate

If your child is identified as not making progress the school will set up a meeting to discuss this with you in more detail and to:

- listen to any concerns you may have too
- plan any additional support your child may receive
- discuss with you any referrals to outside professionals to support your child's learning

How is extra support allocated to children and how do they move between the different levels?

- The school budget, received from Rutland County Council, includes money for supporting children with SEND.
 - The Head Teacher decides on the allocation of the budget for Special Educational Needs and Disabilities in consultation with the school governors, on the basis of needs in the school.
 - The Head Teacher and the SENCO discuss all the information they have about SEND in the school, including:
 - o the children getting extra support already
 - o the children needing extra support
 - o the children who have been identified as not making as much progress as would be expected
- And decide what resources/training and support is needed.
- All resources/training and support are reviewed regularly, and changes made as needed.

If a pupil meets the criteria for special educational needs or disabilities (SEND), an IEP will be created, detailing the exact support the children will receive.

How are the teachers in school helped to work with children with a SEND and what training do they have?

- The SENCO's job is to support the class teacher in planning for children with SEND.
- The school has a training plan for all staff to improve the teaching and learning of children including those with SEND. This includes whole school training on SEND issues such as ASD and Speech and Language difficulties.
- Individual teachers and support staff attend training courses run by outside agencies that are relevant to the needs of specific children in their class e.g., Makaton.

How will the teaching be adapted for my child with SEND?

- Class Teachers plan lessons according to the specific needs of all groups of children in their class and will ensure that your child's needs are met.
- All teachers are provided with information on the needs of individual pupils so that they can plan the learning to ensure that all pupils are able to make progress
- Individual Education Plans (IEPs) and Intervention recommendation overviews will be used alongside planning to ensure children with SEND needs are met, where necessary.
- Specific resources and strategies will be used to support your child individually and in groups.
- Planning and teaching will be adapted on a daily basis if needed to meet your child's learning needs.
- Children will access the National Curriculum at an appropriate developmental level
- SEND pupils will have access to the same curricular opportunities as all other children

How will we measure the progress of your child in school?

- Your child's progress is continually monitored by his/her class teacher.
- His/her progress is reviewed formally every term
- EYFS children are assessed against the Early Learning Goals
- At the end of each key stage (i.e., at the end of year 2 and year 6) all children are required to be formally assessed using Standard Assessment Tests (SATs). This is something the government requires all schools to do and are the results that are published nationally.
- SEN children receiving additional interventions or support are identified on a IEP which will be reviewed every term, as an integral part of Pupil Progress Meetings and the plan for the next term made.
- Children with an EHC Plan will have an IEP which will be reviewed every term and the plan for the next term made.
- The progress of children with an EHC Plan is formally reviewed yearly, at an Annual Review with all adults involved with the child's education.
- The SENCO will also check that your child is making good progress within any individual work and in any group that they take part in.

What support is there for my child's overall well-being?

- Children are supported with their social and emotional development throughout the school day, through the curriculum and extra-curricular activities. Personal, Social and Health Education is integral to our curriculum and is also taught explicitly through our Jigsaw Lessons.

 - If necessary, your child will be helped by a transition booklet to support them in understanding moving on.

- In Year 6:
 - The Year 6 transition leader will attend the Primary Transition Day to discuss the specific needs of your child with the SENCO of their secondary school, and the specialist session for students with Autism, as appropriate.
